

YOUNG LEARNER SUMMER RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMME 2015 FOR INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS AGED 12-17

LOCATION OF PROGRAMME

The Young Learner Summer Programme is based at the modern and scenic campus of Stirling University. The historic city of Stirling is ideally situated close to the Highlands of Scotland and is less than 1 hour travelling time from the major cities of Glasgow and Edinburgh.

For students interested in future study in the UK, this location provides them with an ideal opportunity to experience living on a university campus.

THE PROGRAMME

As part of an action packed, fun & stimulating programme students will discover "Braveheart country" learn about Scottish history and culture, participate in Hamilton School's cultural and sporting activities whilst practising their English skills.

WHAT IS INCLUDED

- 15 hours of English language tuition each week
- 5 hours of creative project work each week
- Transfers to/from Edinburgh & Glasgow airports (groups only)
- Single bedroom, student residential flat on campus
- Full board
- All activities & excursions
- All teaching materials
- PC and internet access
- End of Course Certificate and Student Progress Report

ENGLISH CLASSES

The programme includes 15 hours per week of English language tuition (3 hours each morning) comprising topic based General English classes and cultural lessons using task based learning methodology. The emphasis is on speaking and listening.

CREATIVE PROJECT WORK

A unique feature of the programme is 5 hours per week of supervised project work, which enables the students to further develop and practise their English skills. These fun sessions give students the opportunity of working together creatively to apply English through activities such as video production, Scottish dance/drama and photo story competitions.
